

ATTLEBORO'S ANNUAL

expo

for the Senses

Music • Art • Jewelry • Food

Plan to Attend the First Annual Expo for the Senses!

June 27th, 2009 Noon - 6PM

(rain date June 28th, 2009)

Explore your senses by tasting food samplings from 17 area restaurants, while listening to live jazz, swing and bluegrass music. See gorgeous glittering jewelry for sale and get in touch with art and craft exhibitors.

This Expo is fun for all ages... Free Admission!

Children will be engaged watching animal presentations by Capron Park Zoo and creating crafts near the Attleboro Arts Museum. There will be Police and Fire Exhibits, a Race Car, Karate Class performances, free face painting and caricatures.

The Expo will be located downtown in the area surrounding Gilbert Perry Square, the Common and in front of City Hall and the Attleboro Arts Museum. Visitors are encouraged to wear comfortable shoes and to carry sunscreen. This is an all day event.
